DISCLAIMER: Field Artillery—is published bimonthly by Headquarters, Department of the Army, under the auspices of the US Army Field Artillery School (Building 758), Fort Sill, OK. The views expressed are those of the authors, not the Department of Defense or its elements. Field Artillery's content doesn't necessarily reflect the US Army's position and doesn't supersede information in other official Army publications. Use of news items constitutes neither affirmation of their accuracy nor product endorsements.

PURPOSE: (as stated in the first Field Artillery Journal in 1911): To publish a journal for disseminating professional knowledge and furnishing information as to the Field Artillery's progress, development and best use in campaign; to cultivate, with the other arms, a common understanding of the power and limitations of each; to foster a feeling of interdependence among the different arms and of hearty cooperation by all; and to promote understanding between the regular and militia forces by a closer bond; all of which objects are worthy and contribute to the good of our country.

OFFICIAL DISTRIBUTION: US Army and Marine Corps Active and Reserve Components FA units: seven copies to corps artillery, division artillery, brigade and regimental headquarters; 13 copies to battalions; and seven copies to separate batteries or detachments. In addition, other Department of Defense or government agencies that work with Field Artillery or fire support personnel, issues, material, doctrine, training, organization or equipment may request a limited number of free copies of the magazine. These include, but are not limited to, other coordination and support units, training centers and branch schools, recruiting commands, readiness groups, libraries and education centers, program/project managers, military arsenals and laboratories, state adjutant generals, liaison officers, military academies, ROTCs, major command headquarters, military attaches and public affairs offices.

PAID SUBSCRIPTIONS: Those ineligible for Official Distribution may subscribe through the US Field Artillery Association, P.O. Box 33027, Fort Sill, OK 73503-0027 or www.fieldartillery.org. Telephone numbers are (580) 355-4677 or FAX (580) 355-8745 (no DSN).
