

5. Uniforms: The duty uniform is ACUs. (See list below):

6. WOBC Packing List

2 pair - ACU boots

1 pair - Running shoes

1 Helmet, ballistic w/ACU covers (Kevlar) (Live Fire Exercise/FTX)

4 sets – ACUs (Counting the one you are wearing for in-processing)

1 each - Patrol caps NOTE: (ACU cap)

1 each - Black Beret (Ft. Bragg selectees wear their appropriate headgear, only after you are given your clearing papers)

1 each - Gortex Jacket

1 each – hearing protection

1 set - Army PT uniform (with shorts, T-shirt IPFU or PFU) (recommend you bring more than one sets) (winter sweat suit and 1 each grey cap) **

1 pair - Army black gloves with inserts (MO&E and PT)

5 pair - White socks (no stripes or logos, calf high)

Appropriate underwear for uniforms

1 PT Belt

1 dress uniform (any combination of the following):

Green Uniform w/long and short sleeve shirts, with appropriate headgear and awards for graduation, DA Photo, monthly Payday Activities, and UCMJ as needed.

Blue Uniform w/long sleeve shirts, with appropriate headgear and awards. Dining In/Out and additional formal functions requiring your attendance.

Army Service Uniform w/long and short sleeve shirts, with appropriate headgear and awards.

 required items during OCT-APR and optional during MAY-SEP

Note: It is recommended that students bring an old set of ACUs, boots, patrol cap, Kevlar Cover to have during PT/Combative Level One Certification/Training.

7. Civilian Attire: Social dress for after duty functions is normally casual, e.g., dress slacks, sport shirt, etc.