

Fort Sill VCC to change hours

Fort Sill – The Fort Sill Visitor Control Center will change hours of operation beginning Wednesday, July 8. In keeping with Army guidelines, the center will close at 9 p.m. on the evening of July 8 and will reopen the Thursday, July 9 at 5 a.m.

The new, permanent hours will then be 5 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

The post is changing the VCC hours of operation to better align with other Army and Air Force installations that do not operate on a 24-hour schedule. This reduction will allow VCC personnel to focus on the hours most used by people seeking legitimate access to post.

Visitors can still gain access to Fort Sill during the hours the VCC is closed. If someone needs to enter Fort Sill between 9 p.m.-5 a.m., they should go to Bentley Gate on Sheridan Road. The gate guard, working with the Military Police desk, will determine if the individual has a valid requirement to enter on a case-by-case basis,
