

Air Defense Artillery Association ADA Walk of Fame Brick Campaign

25 October 2013

Dear Members and Supporters of Air Defense Artillery:

The Air Defense Artillery (ADA) Walk of Fame that surrounds the First to Fire statue (now located in front of the 30th ADA Brigade headquarters at Fort Sill, Oklahoma), is populated by bricks purchased by soldiers and civilians just like you. These historical markers represent air defenders past and present both military and civilian; government, corporate, city and state partners; ADA units; family members; friends; and significant moments in history.

The Air Defense Artillery Association (ADAA) Walk of Fame Brick Campaign provides you with an opportunity to commemorate your contribution to the branch; pay tribute to an outstanding soldier, leader or mentor; and honor a battle buddy or loved one by purchasing a brick (or multiple bricks). The bricks are professionally finished and installed (in groups of no less than 150 due to budgetary restrictions) as an addition to the current Walk of Fame.

Now is the time to get a jump on the 1 January 2014 cost increase. Currently, the standard red brick is priced at $40, the black stone and white stone brick (reserved for those killed in action) are priced at $80. Inscriptions/dedications are restricted to 4 lines with a maximum of 21 spaces per line. (On 1 January 2014, the cost of bricks will increase to $60 and $100 respectively.)

Attached for your convenience is an order form. You may also contact us for more information at www.firsttofire.com or by calling Mrs. Gigi Arnold, ADAA's executive secretary, at (830) 385-0057.

Your participation and contribution to the ADA Walk of Fame Brick Campaign will help to ensure the ADA Association's long standing support of ADA Soldiers and their families around the world continues.

Thank you in advance for your support. First to Fire!

Sincerely,

Jim Hankins
