

COL (Retired) STEPHEN M. CHRISTIAN

UNITED STATES ARMY

Colonel Steve M. Christian is a native of Las Vegas, Nevada and enlisted in the Army in 1978. In 1984, Colonel Christian attended Officer Candidate School and was commissioned as an Air Defense Artillery Officer. Upon completion of the Air Defense Officers' Basic Course, he served as a Platoon leader, Battery Executive Officer, and Battalion Adjutant with the 2nd Battalion, 62nd Air Defense Artillery before assuming duties as the Aide-de-Camp to the Assistant Division Commander for Support, in the 7th Infantry Division (Light) at Fort Ord, California.

Following his assignment at Fort Ord, Colonel Christian attended the Infantry Officer's Advanced Course in 1989. His next assignment was with the 1st Battalion, 62nd Air Defense Artillery, and the 25th Infantry Division (Light) from 1989 to 1992. During his assignment at Schofield Barracks, he served as Battalion Logistics Officer, followed by a tour as the Assistant Secretary of the General Staff before assuming command of Battery A, 1st Battalion, 62nd Air Defense Artillery.

From 1992 to 1995, Colonel Christian Served as an Air Defense Officer's Advanced Course Small Group Instructor at Fort Bliss, Texas before attending the United States Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Upon graduation from the Command and General Staff College, he served as the Assistant Division Air Defense Officer and Battalion Operations Officer in the 3rd Battalion, 62nd Air Defense Artillery, 10th Mountain Division at Fort Drum, New York from 1996 to 1998.

Following his tour at Fort Drum, Colonel Christian served as a member of the commanders Action Group, and Deputy Director of Command Protocol for United States Space Command, North American Aerospace Defense Command, and Air Force Space Command, followed by two year assignment as the Executive Officer to the United States Space Command Director of Plans (J5). His last assignment before returning to the 25th Infantry Division was as the Deputy TRADOC System Manager for Ground-based Midcourse Defense, formerly known as the National Missile Defense Program.

Colonel Christian served as the Battalion Commander of the 1st Battalion, 62nd Air Defense Artillery Regiment for three years and served as Battalion Commander/Deputy Director of Operations, Combined Forces Command-Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom V from February 2004 to February 2005. Following Command, colonel Christian served as a Congressional Legislative Liaison for the Secretary of the Army prior to attending the National War college at Fort McNair, Virginia. Colonel Christian's final assignment was here at Monmouth where he served as the Commander U.S. Army Garrison Fort Monmouth for the past 28 months.

Colonel Christian's civilian education includes a Bachelor of Science in Social Psychology for Park University, Missouri, a master of Science in Administration from Central Michigan University, and a Master of Security Strategy from the National War College, National Defense University