

CSM (Retired) LAWRENCE H. LARSON

UNITED STATES ARMY

Command Sergeant Major (Ret) Larson's previous assignments include 4 tours at Fort Bliss; 5 tours in the Federal Republic of Germany; and 1 tour to the Republic of Korea. CSM Larson participated in Operations Desert Shield/Storm while assigned to the 11th Air Defense Artillery Brigade and has participated in several other rotations to Southwest Asia and served in the Balkans during Operations Joint Endeavor and Joint Guard.

He has held virtually every leadership position from Squad Leader to Command Sergeant Major and retired after duty as the Command Sergeant Major for 4th Battalion, 6th Air Defense Artillery.

Relevant other assignments included: Command Sergeant Major, 1st Battalion, 7th Air Defense Artillery; Operations Sergeant Major for the 69th Air Defense Artillery Brigade.

CSM (Ret) Larson's military schooling includes: The 7th Army NCO Academy; the Air Defense Advanced Noncommissioned Officer Course; First Sergeant Course (Munich); and the United States Army Sergeants Major Academy, Class 42.

His awards include the Legion of Merit; Bronze Star Medal; Meritorious Service Medal (3OLC); Army Commendation Medal (8OLC); Army Achievement Medal (1OLC); the German Missile Badge in Gold; and numerous other service and campaign ribbons.

CSM (Ret) Larson is married to the former Ingrid Fetscher and they make their home in El Paso.