

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO INTERPRET HISTORY OF OLD FORT SILL!

The Fort Sill Museum Marshals Group is being re-organized and it promises to become one of the premier historical interpretive events at the Museum.

This should be an exciting time for the Guardhouse and the Deputy US Marshal interpreters. Plans are underway to portray and interpret the role of the Deputy US Marshals at Fort Sill and especially the Guardhouse in such a dynamic manner that it will become the talk of the community.

Needless to say, as is common with anything of importance, we need volunteers. We need those men who have a love of history, especially history pertaining to Southwest Oklahoma and Old Fort Sill.

If you are one of these men, please let us know. Maybe you know someone who would also be interested in becoming an interpreter/volunteer at the Fort Sill Museum.

Come, be a part of interpreting history at the Fort Sill Museum!

For information or to join the Deputy US Marshals, please call the Fort Sill Museum at 580-442-5123 or Alvie Cater at 580-917-0544
