Oklahoma City shops placed off limits

Sept. 27, 2011 - Maj. Gen. David D. Halverson, U.S. Army Fires Center of Excellence and Fort Sill commanding general has signed an off-limits order for Mr. Coolz, FatHedz, Outer Limits, Ziggy's Smoke Shop, Pipe Dreamz and BS Unlimited in Oklahoma City.

In his order, Halverson said these businesses were placed off limits to protect the health, safety, morale, welfare and discipline of service members. The order applies to all military personnel assigned to, attached to, or in a temporary duty status at military units or installations in Oklahoma, Arkansas, and north Texas.

Soldiers, Marines, airmen and seamen who violate this order may be subject to disciplinary actions under the Uniform Code of Military Justice or to adverse administrative action.

Halverson issued the off-limits order based on a recommendation from the Western Oklahoma Area Joint Service Armed Forces Disciplinary Control Board. Halverson is the sponsoring commander for the board. The board reviewed materials concerning the businesses and voted to recommend placing an indefinite off-limits order against them.

The board advises and makes recommendations to commanders on matters concerning eliminating conditions that adversely affect the health, safety, morals, welfare, morale, and discipline of the Armed Forces. It consists of representatives from Fort Sill, Altus, Vance, Sheppard, and Tinker Air Force Bases.

Regulations permit Mr. Coolz, FatHedz, Outer Limits, Ziggy's Smoke Shop, Pipe Dreamz and BS Unlimited to appeal the off-limits declaration to the AFDCB at any time.
