C-3. Policy.

a. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. section 926B, notwithstanding any other provision or law of any State or political subdivision thereof, a qualified law enforcement officer may carry a concealed firearm that has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce if the law enforcement officer:

(1) Meets the definitional requirements of a "qualified law enforcement officer" as outlined in paragraph 4 of this directive, and

(2) Is carrying photographic identification issued by the Army that identifies the employee as an Army law enforcement officer.

b. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. section 926C, notwithstanding any other provision of the law of any State or any political subdivision thereof, a qualified retired, separated or medically retired law enforcement officer may carry a concealed firearm that has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce if the retired, separated or medically retired law enforcement officer:

(1) Meets the requirements of a "qualified retired law enforcement officer" as outlined in paragraph 5 of this directive; and

(2) Carries:

(a) Photographic identification issued by the Army identifying that the person was employed as a law enforcement officer; and certified firearms instructor qualified to conduct a firearms qualification test for currently serving officers within that State, that indicates the individual has, during the most recent 12-month period, met the State's active duty standards for qualification in firearms training to carry a firearm of the same type as the concealed firearm or, if the State has not established standards, standards set by any law enforcement agency within that State to carry a firearm of the same type as the concealed firearm.

C-4. Qualified Law Enforcement Officer. To qualify for the identification card, an individual must be an employee of the Army who:

Appendix G

Deployment Security Procedures

G-1. Purpose. To establish guidelines and procedures for physical security of property belonging to deployed units and personnel.

G-2. General. The increasing potential for units to deploy on a regular or short notice requires necessary procedures for the inventory, storage and security of unit/personal property. Security of unit/personal property is important to morale and protects the government from the cost of claims. The key to effective property security is a program which establishes strict procedures for joint inventories, marking of high value items, marking and tagging of large items which cannot be secured in bandable containers, use of seals, periodic security checks and immediate investigation when evidence of unauthorized entry or apparent break-ins to storage areas is detected.

G-3. Responsibilities. All personnel are responsible to follow the guidelines and procedures governing physical security of unit/personal property during deployments.

G-4. Procedures.

a. If property is stored in unit facilities, deploying personnel will jointly inventory all property with their first line supervisor or Rear Detachment Commander (RDC). Units will prepare a list of items inventoried and verified by the owner's and supervisor's or RDC's signatures.

b. Record all high dollar value items with all serial numbers and identifying information on FS Form 774. The signature of the verifying individual is the first and last entry recorded. The initials of the verifying individual are on all other entries.

c. If the property is moved to another contracted or government facility, prepare inventories with the supporting transportation office.

d. Consolidate property of deployed personnel in a secured and sealed facility. Unaccompanied access is not allowed to rooms containing personal property of deployed personnel. Strictly control accompanied access. If consolidated storage is not available, coordinate with supporting engineer space managers, resource managers and transportation offices for possible storage locations.

e. Secure personal property in bandable containers when physically possible. Give high dollar value items priority in lockable storage containers, which are sealed, banded and locked. Post an inventory of the contents inside of the container. The owner and RDC will retain a copy of the inventory. Engrave high dollar value items with an identifying mark or number, unless such markings will damage or devalue the property. Annotate on the joint inventory the lack of engraved markings. To identify the owner, mark and tag personal property that does not fit into a secure container. Post an inventory of property not in a secure container on the inside of the room door (protected from view) when barracks rooms are used for storage. The owner and RDC will retain a copy of the inventory.

f. Close and lock all room windows, curtains and blinds. Lock the room and provide all keys to the RDC. Lock and seal individual room doors with a paper seal. Mark seal with the date and names of the personnel affixing the seal. Record seal information to facilitate security checks and investigations. Lock and seal doors providing access to the hallway from the stairwell or outside when no personnel are residing in that section of the building.

g. In the event personnel return early or entry is needed to a room, the RDC is responsible to ensure only accompanied access is authorized to the respective room. Anytime access is required, record the date and time the seal was broken, names of personnel entering the room, and the reason for access. Prior to resealing the room, re-verify inventories for any loose property and containers where the seal was broken. Upon departure, reseal the hallway or corridor in the manner described above. When personnel reside on a floor with rooms belonging to deployed personnel, the RDC will implement sufficient security measures to protect government and personal property.

h. RDCs will ensure security checks are conducted at least twice daily. Security checks will include verification of information on seals to identify any tampering or unauthorized entry.

G-5. Privately-Owned Vehicles (POV).

a. Inventory, inspect, and store POV's in a holding area designated by the unit commander or responsible authority.

b. Make POV storage available to all deploying personnel. Store all POV's to include, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, boats, and mopeds in the holding lot.

c. Contact the Installation transportation office for guidance on inspection and completion of DD Form 788 (POV Shipping Document) or a similar electronically generated form for the purposes of documenting the condition of the vehicle. Contact the PMO for guidance on nonoperational registration procedures and canceling of insurance. RDCs will coordinate with the responsible commander to delineate responsibilities for security checks of holding areas.

d. Brief all personnel securing their POV's in the holding area on processing requirements and procedures.

(1) Conduct a joint inventory/inspection with the owner and an NCO in the chain of command using DD Form 788. Verify the DD Form 788 upon processing into the holding area

(2) Prepare an envelope with the owner's name, grade, unit, and SSN. The RDC will maintain on file all forms, supporting paperwork, and keys.

(3) Personnel will remove all pilferable items from the vehicle and secure these items with their personal property. Tire changing tools and jack will remain in the vehicle.

e. Processing POV's into the holding area.

(1) RDC will designate an NCO, not deploying, to assist processing POV's at the holding area.

(2) The NCO is responsible for conducting final joint inspection of the POV with the owner and parking vehicles in the designated area.

(3) Deploying personnel will drive their POV's to the holding lot with a copy of the vehicle registration and all items completed during the initial processing located in the prepared envelope.

(4) The owner and the processing NCO will verify the prepared DD Form 788. Make any changes or additions at this time and complete the DD Form 788.

(5) Disconnect all batteries.

(6) The processing NCO will collect all documentation to include vehicle registration and vehicle keys. Place these inside the individual's envelope.

(7) The RDC will retain all sealed envelopes. Store envelopes in a locked container to which access is controlled. The RDC will determine personnel allowed access to these envelopes.

(8) Prepare a roster of vehicles stored in the holding area listing the owner, unit, make, model, tag number, registration number, insurance company, and insurance policy number. Update this roster upon any change.

G-6. Arms Room Closure Procedures.

a. Update Master Authorization List (MAL) with current information.

b. Prepare the unaccompanied access roster for rear detachment person(s). Ensure background screening is completed prior to hand carrying the new roster to the Physical Security Division.

c. Identify an NCO or above to conduct a predeployment 100% serial number inventory

Fort Sill Regulation 190-1, 15 May 2020

d. Prepare SF 702 and post on arms room door when door is sealed. SDO/SDNCO will check arms rooms daily and record the status of these checks on the SF 702.

e. Platoons/Sections will give the armorer a roster of personnel/weapons serial numbers of individuals deploying. List should designate which weapons are hand carried, and whether these are assigned or unassigned weapons.

(1) Identify what weapons are deploying in containers.

(2) Identify other equipment deploying.

(3) Identify all other weapons and equipment remaining in the arms room.

f. Armorer will preprint weapons logs and hand receipts to the maximum extent possible (i.e., all information minus signature and time of issue).

g. Prepare preprinted documentation used to conduct stay behind inventories of all items left in the arms room.

h. Prepare written authorization by the commander for all other items other than weapons that are stored in the arms room.

i. Conduct a change of custody inventory between unit armorer and RDC. RDC will sign for all AA&E keys on DA Form 5513-R.

j. Upon completion of deployment upload from the arms room conduct a joint serial number inventory of all weapons/items remaining behind and prepare an informal memorandum.

k. All original arms room documentation will remain behind in unit files. Ensure deploying documentation are copies only.

l. RDC and/or interim armorer will continue to follow and adhere to operational guidance provided in all applicable regulations and SOP.
